The University Library is an innovative partner in the learning community and an active participant in promoting the University’s goals of teaching, learning, scholarship and community outreach. The library provides quality academic services and resources that foster intellectual curiosity, promote critical inquiry and encourage awareness of an increasingly diverse and global environment.